

Funded by the European Union

TRANSITION
Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Czech Republic

would like to invite you to the round table discussion:

What is air pollution in Kazakhstan and its contribution to the climate change?

with presentation of the new research studies

Tuesday 19 September, 10:00 – 13:00

Kazhydromet, 11/1 Mengilik El avenue, Astana

Online streaming: www.instagram.com/ecomuseum.kz

Agenda:

● Welcome words:

- Danara Kizatovna Alimbaeva, General Director of Kazhydromet (TBC)
- Snejana Popova, Project Officer, EU Delegation to Kazakhstan
- Martin Skalsky, Arnika – Czech Republic

● Matus Hrneiar, World from Space:

Air pollution in Kazakhstan as seen from space

Fundamental analysis based on the EU Copernicus Atmosphere Monitoring Service and notes on Kazakhstan's broader impact on climate change

● Dmitriy Kalmykov, EcoMuseum Karaganda:

Greenhouse gases registration and monitoring system

Overview of different methodologies and approaches to data collection on emissions monitoring in Kazakhstan and reporting to international community

● Discussion over refreshments & coffee

More information: Anna Andreychuk, anna.andreychuk@ecomuseum.kz, tel. 705 251 1564

Follow us: www.ecocitizens.kz